PRINTING AND PHOTOGRAPHY DIVISION
WEEKLY REPORT FOR PERIOD ENDING
28 April - 4 May 1983

I. Items or Events of Major Interest that have Occurred During the Preceding Week

A. NIC Support: Advance copies of National Intelligence Estimate 11/3-8 on Soviet Capabilities were sent to the requestor and approved. Delivery of this large annual publication is scheduled for 5 May.

B. Joint Publication Research Service (JPRS) Support: OL/P&PD provided overnight support to JPRS in producing 600 copies of a 400 page document. Material was submitted from JPRS on Thursday, and printed copies were returned on Friday, April 29.

C. Video/Motion Picture Activity: At the request of Logistics Services Division, P&PD provided film crew coverage for video production and backup motion picture production of the 29 April Memorial Service for the Beirut bombing victims.

II. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week

A. President's Daily Brief (PDB) Format Change: Consistent with the gradual conversion of publication sizes from 8" x 10 1/2" to 8 1/2 x 11, the President's Daily Brief will be converted to the new format on Monday, May 10. This size will conform to the National Intelligence Daily, and no problems are anticipated in the changeover.
